TORONTO PREMIERE

A documentary about how Vancouver cyclists are building critical mass and changing the face of the city.

You Never Bike Alone follows a growing self-propelled movement, from freak bikers to naked cyclists to commuters, bringing together communities in a healthier, more sustainable environment.

"captures... the absolutely exhilarating feeling of riding your bike with several hundred other cyclists on city streets."

The Vancouver Sun

"A compelling and intelligent film"

The Vancouver Courier

"I wanted to ride off in the sunset with all of them."
